UNC HEALTH

UNC ACUTE CARE SERVICES

critical care

PHARMACY INTERNSHIP

The Critical Care Intership Program is a one-year paid internship program that offers unique, hands-on experiences that contribute to clinical, operational, and academic aspects of critical care pharmacy practice.

Why Choose Critical Care?

CLINICAL PRACTICE EXPERIENCE
Extensive adult and pediatric ICU exposure and high acuity medication management

OPERATIONAL EXPERIENCE
Integration into pharmacy operations and medication use system, and medication history staffing

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT
Mentorship from clinical leaders and professional development series throughout the year

RESEARCH & QUALITY IMPROVEMENT
Variety of research opportunities and quality improvement projects with hands-on involvement

ELIGIBILITY

PY2 available the summer before PY3 year

ONE YEAR COMMITTMENT

Spring of 2026 through Spring of 2027

- 8 week immersive summer experience
- 4 hours per week during school year
- Every 3rd weekend medication history staffing

PROGRAM DIRECTOR

Kayla John, PharmD, BCCCP
Kayla.John@unchealth.unc.edu